

TRUTH IN LOVE MINISTRY

To bring as many people as possible to heaven!

Summer, 2006

QUOTES:

- "I am stunned... this web site is awesome" (Troy).
- "Your ministry makes reaching out to LDS missionaries with the gospel much less daunting." (Jason)
- "As a former Mormon, I know the importance of witnessing through love and compassion. For it was through love and compassion that I finally came to Christ." (Jennifer)

REAL STORIES, REAL PEOPLE

Truth in Love Ministry is affecting real people who live across our nation and the whole world. From a Christian housewife inviting two female LDS missionaries for a weekly Bible study to the pastor in Indonesia who is seeing a massive influx of Mormon missionaries, to the variety of LDS men and women who are contacting our website. Typically, an LDS member will express anger or ask pointed questions like, "Why are Mormons not considered Christian!" or "You do not have a true church because you do not have the ordinances." Even Christians will chastise us for being judgmental.

We have been given the unique opportunity to share with Mormons what the Holy Bible teaches for the very first time. This is the privilege the Lord is giving us to proclaim the true Gospel and grace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. True forgiveness and assurance along with the new life found only in Christ is what our ministry is all about.

NEW WEBSITE FOR MORMONS TO LAUNCH ON JUNE 12, 2006!

Truth in Love Ministry has focused on equipping Christians to witness to Mormons for the past ten years. Now, after years of research, feedback and prayer, we are set to launch a new website that is specifically designed to reach out directly to Mormons.

The new website is called www.TheCityOfZion.com. This interactive website will teach scriptural truths regarding the true Jesus defining words that are often misconstrued by the LDS church. Their concept and understanding of forgiveness, atonement, and redemption is very different from our own. Using various buildings within the city of Zion, we will carefully and respectfully teach what the Bible says about our salvation.

Since Mormons are taught that any connection with Christian churches is considered apostasy, we feel that a website will give Mormons a safer alternative to discover the truths of the Bible. We pray the Lord will bless this effort to win souls.

JASON

“I am so grateful for all the work that has been done in regards to witnessing to Mormons. I am so happy to see the LDS missionaries come to my door. I have currently been meeting with two of them for a month and a half now. Your ministry makes reaching them with the gospel much less daunting and frustrating.”

February, 2006

MELISSA

“Thank you for taking the time, effort, money and heart to put together the website. It is very helpful to a Christian finding themselves in a brand new mission field.” March, 2006

CHRIS

“I absolutely love your website. Very, very well done. I recently became a believer in Christ after two years of intense study regarding Mormonism and Christianity.” February, 2006

“Melissa is a homemaker and a mother who has taken the time to witness to two female LDS missionaries”

Current LDS member and former missionary

“I didn’t feel love from people trying to witness to me. Instead, I felt pride, vengeance and hate. If you guys can get people to feel more love than pride when witnessing then I don’t know how many more people you will convert.”

April, 2006

Jennifer (Ex-Mormon)

“As a former Mormon, I know the importance of witnessing through love and compassion, rather than fighting and in your face. For it was through love and compassion that I finally came to Christ.”

J.W. (LDS member)

“I found the information provided interesting and the points outlined about what a Mormon is, definitely caught my attention.” February, 2006

“My name is Christian and I live in Switzerland. Yesterday, I had two Mormons at my house telling me about their church. Thank God that I’ve already found the true way to God and that’s through Jesus Christ. Thank you for your ministry.”

J.J.

“I was witnessed to at work, by co-workers many years ago, and of course being a mormon then, I tried to convert them, they frustrated me and in my mind tried to trip me up, which I wrote off to them being filled with the spirit of the devil, but they never gave up on me with their love. At that time they did not sway me, but the Lord worked on me and later, many years later, as I began to study my own way out, I realized they had planted seeds.

So if you feel you are not being successful just because they don't agree with you and your witness, do not give up. Keep on planting those lovely, friendly seeds of truth.”

LOUISE, Brisbane, Australia

“My husband and I have had a couple of Mormon missionaries visiting us for the last month. It was my great desire to learn more about them in order to help them see that they really need the true love of Jesus and believe that Jesus is their personal Savior. I thank God so much for your ministry. It has helped me so much. You have given great practical ways to reach them in love. It saddens me to see so many people who believe that they are the true church. And I so much want to plant a seed in their hearts that Jesus is the answer.”

A PRAYER FOR TRUTH IN LOVE MINISTRY

We want to thank all those people who have contacted our ministry and have agreed to regularly pray for the work being done. We offer the following prayer to assist you.

Dear Lord: Thank you for the opportunity you have given me and many others to place Truth in Love Ministry into your hands. Guide the work involved and lead people to partner with the ministry in order to effectively reach out to all Mormons who need to hear the real truth of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

I pray for the launching of the new website, www.thecityofzion.com. Lead members of the Mormon to church to check out and read the information carefully. Open up their hearts and minds to the power of your Word. Allow them to let go of any fears or pressures from the family or the church that will cause them to stay in Mormonism. Be with those e-mail witnesses who will be in contact with people from the new website. May they speak the truth in love.

An LDS person can have the freedom and safety in contacting our website and discover the real truths about Jesus and their salvation

I pray for those individuals and congregations who are stepping out to host presentations or sponsoring Truth in Love radio spots. Guide and empower them in their willingness to share the gospel with those in the Mormon church. We ask this all in your precious name. Amen.
